Re: United States v. SANJAY KUMAR and STEPHEN RICHARDS
Case Number 2004R02094 and Court Docket Number: CR-04-0846

Dear Sir or Madam:

If you owned the stock of Computer Associates International, Inc. during the period 1999 through 2000, you may be a victim in the above-referenced criminal case and therefore entitled to certain rights.

Charges have been filed against defendant(s) SANJAY KUMAR and STEPHEN RICHARDS. The defendants have pleaded GUILTY to all such charges. The lead prosecutor for this case is ERIC R. KOMITEE. The main charge is securities fraud.

The sentencing hearing for defendant SANJAY KUMAR has been set for October 30, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. at the United States Federal Court, 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York, before the Honorable I. Leo Glasser. The sentencing hearing for defendant STEPHEN RICHARDS has been set for November 2, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. at the same location. There may be an evidentiary hearing relating to the sentencing of one or both defendants; if this hearing occurs, it will be on October 23, 2006 and October 25, 2006. You are welcome to attend these proceedings; however, unless you have received a subpoena, your attendance is not required by the Court. You may contact the Court in writing at the above address prior to this hearing if you wish your views to be heard in that manner. If you plan to attend the hearing(s) in person, please contact the Victim notification hotline at 718-254-6256 to verify the sentencing date and time. Should you wish to speak at the sentencing or would like to check for the most current information on the date/time of this event, please call the hotline a day or two before the scheduled hearing.

The Crime Victims' Rights Act gives victims of criminal offenses in Federal court certain rights, including: (1) The right to be reasonably protected from the accused; (2) The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding involving the crime, or of any release or escape of the accused; (3) The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at that proceeding; (4) The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea, or sentencing; (5) The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case; (6) The right to full and timely restitution as provided by law; (7) The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay; and (8) The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

We will make our best efforts to ensure you are provided the rights described above. While our office cannot act as your attorney or provide you with legal advice, you can seek the advice of an attorney with respect to these rights or other related legal matters.

A United States Probation Officer prepares a report for the Court and may contact you to discuss the impact the crime had on you financially, physically, and/or emotionally. If you are contacted, please make every effort to provide accurate and detailed information.

If you have other questions which involve this matter, please contact the Victim Notification service of our office at 718-254-6256.

Sincerely,

Eric Komitee/LF
